

Student Volunteer Opportunities – Pharmacy

Goldfarb School of Nursing at Barnes-Jewish College, St. Louis College of Pharmacy, Washington University School of Medicine

Event Name	Event Category	Event Location/date	Target population	Student Organization	Sponsoring Institution	Description	More Information
STLCOP C.A.R.E.S.	Clinical Support	Various locations in the St. Louis Metro area/held each fall	Community	Pharmacy	-	Student-organized day of community service. Students and faculty provide free health screenings at local pharmacies, clean up Forest Park, assist a Habitat for Humanity build, and wrap Christmas presents for children in need.	http://stlcop.edu/community/stlcop-cares.html
Diabetes screenings/ Boo Fest	Clinical Support	Various locations in the St. Louis area	Community	Operation Immunization	Juvenile Diabetes Research Foundation	Student volunteers hold numerous diabetes screenings every year across venues in St. Louis and host Boo Fest on the STLCOP campus every October.	https://www.stlcop.edu/news/boofest-2017.html
SciFest: Healthy U/ HealthFest	Community Support/ Education	St. Louis Science Center/annually on the first Saturday in November	Community	Pharmacy	-	SciFest culminates with our annual celebration of health! Study up on easy tips you can use to make healthier everyday choices for you and your family and friends. Kids and adults alike can get their questions answered by all sorts of experts onsite.	https://www.stlsc.org/learn-kid-family-activities/scifest/
Ameren Health and Wellness Fair	Community Support/ Education	Ameren UE/held annually in early March	Adults	Pharmacy	Ameren UE	Ameren's most valuable resource is its co-workers; therefore, investing in that resource is a top priority of the Ameren Well-being initiative. Such investments offer co-workers and their families support to engage in an active process of becoming aware of and making choices toward a healthy and fulfilling life.	http://stlcop.edu/community/outreach-and-advocacy-day.html